

ADRIAAN GEUZE LECTURED AT THE UNIVERSITY OF VIRGINIA'S SCHOOL OF ARCHITECTURE

20-01-2013

During Jan 14 - 20, 2013, Adriaan Geuze lectured at the University of Virginia's School of Architecture, as a Jaquelin T. Robertson Visiting Professor this year. He was the guest leader of the ALL-SCHOOL WORKSHOP AND COMPETITION 2.0, titled: 'The Rivanna River Vortex'. The challenge was to create a plan for the Rivanna Riverfront that aids in connecting the city, the county, and the river.

Geuze acted as an all-school critic during the workshop, advising all teams on their designs and agendas. In addition to meeting with the teams throughout the week Geuze presented a lecture of his work at West 8 on Monday 14 at Campbell Hall.

For information regarding the workshop please refer to the local newspaper: Charlottesville TOMORROW. The result of the competition can be found also here.
