

DANIEL VASINI AT NEW AMSTERDAM HISTORY CENTER - FIGHTING THE FLOOD

27-11-2020

Daniel Vasini, Creative Director of West 8 New York, will present West 8's work on Governors Island at an online lecture, hosted on Monday, December 1 by the New Amsterdam History Center in New York.

Entitled "Fighting the Flood", this digital event will bring together architects, designers, and planners from three Dutch companies and a like-minded American firm to discuss their innovative projects to mitigate the future severe flooding threat in New York.

Tickets are free for students and members. More information and tickets are available here.
