

JUBILEE GARDENS RATED AS ONE OF THE TOP TEN SOUTH BANK DESTINATIONS

24-05-2013

The South Bank of the River Thames is abundant with cultural and artistic institutions, offering educational and inspirational experiences to visitors and locals of London.

The transformation of Jubilee Gardens from a flat and featureless grass patch into a park with lush green grass and chalk-white pavement has been a huge success.

The Culture Trip, a one-stop, global website that showcases the best of art and culture for every country in the world, has acknowledged this eye-catching park in a recent stroll around London, rating it as one of the top ten South Bank destinations.

For more information: top ten south bank destinations

more information: Jubilee Gardens